Encl: (1) List of countries for which permission to visit must be obtained from Navy Personnel Command (NAVPERSCOM)
(2) Entry requirements and specific travel information on countries and places for which permission to visit is not required from Navy Personnel Command (NAVPERSCOM)

1. Purpose

- a. To supplement references (a) through (e).
- b. To issue entry requirements and travel information for travel of active duty Navy personnel on leave outside the United States. This instruction is a complete revision and should be reviewed in its entirety.

2. Cancellation. BUPERSINST 1050.11F.

3. Scope. This instruction applies to military personnel on leave in foreign countries. Policy and procedures for granting simple foreign leave travel are in reference (a). Policy for granting foreign leave travel in connection with temporary additional duty (TAD) orders is in references (b) and (c). Policy for circuitous travel associated with permanent change of station (PCS) orders is in reference (d). Policy for clearances and accreditation for all official temporary duty (TDY or TAD) by Department of the Navy (DON) personnel is in reference (e).

4. Action

a. Unless prohibited by competent authority, commanding officers (COs) may, as set forth in reference (a), authorize foreign leave travel to countries and places not listed in enclosure (1). All countries for which foreign leave is anticipated or authorized, as well as those through which travel is required, must be specifically listed in the detaching endorsement on PCS orders or in the leave authorization. Personnel visiting or traveling through countries listed in enclosure (1) should comply with special requirements contained therein.

b. Personnel wanting to visit countries listed in enclosure (1) will submit a request to Navy Personnel Command (NAVPERSCOM) (PERS-454C) per reference (a).

c. Area commanders and other Navy representatives are requested to provide NAVPERSCOM (PERS-454C) information for inclusion in enclosure (2), and to submit change recommendations whenever new information is brought to their attention. Information contained in reference (f) about ordinary leave is in enclosure (2); however, reference (f) is primarily for use by flight crew personnel and official Department of Defense (DOD) TDY or TAD travel. Therefore, up-to-date information about entry requirements should be submitted promptly. Similar information is also requested on countries listed in enclosure (1).

Requirements for Filipino service members and their families who are non-immigrant residents of the US:

For Non-immigrant service members: may enter Philippines with a Philippines passport. In order to leave Philippines, servicemember must have a passport, current military identification card, and valid leave papers/orders. These leave papers/orders must specify Philippines as a destination or interim stop. Failure to possess these documents or staying past dates specified in the leave papers/orders will result in servicemember being prevented from leaving the country by Philippines immigration. Servicemember will then be subject to remaining in country indefinitely.

For Non-immigrant family members: State Department no longer grants preferential visa treatment to families of non-immigrant servicemembers. Before leaving the U.S., non-immigrant family members who have one-time entry visas or who have extended their stay in the U.S. with Immigration and Naturalization Service (INS) via voluntary departure order should apply for and obtain advance parole from their local INS office. Although some exceptions are made by AMEMBASSY on a case-by-case basis, non-immigrant family members who fail to obtain advance parole from INS should be aware they face a good possibility of not being allowed to return to the U.S..

Filipino servicemembers and their dependents who are U.S. resident aliens (green card holders) must have valid Philippine passports and Resident Alien Cards in their possession.

Commanders should ensure non-immigrant Filipino service members and their families have all appropriate documentation prior to authorizing leave travel to Philippines.

No formal currency declaration is required; those entering or departing may not possess more than 500 pesos. No restrictions are imposed on imports or exports of legally
